Yom Kippur – also known as Day of Atonement, is the holiest day of the year for the Jewish people. Its central themes are atonement and repentance.

Columbus Day – Many countries in the New World and elsewhere officially celebrate as a holiday the anniversary of Christopher Columbus's arrival in the Americas, which happened on October 12, 1492. The traditional holiday is observed the second Monday in October.

Halloween – Evolving from the ancient Celtic holiday of Samhain, modern Halloween has become less about literal ghosts and ghouls and more about costumes and candy. The Celts used the day to mark the end of the harvest season and the beginning of winter, and also believed that this transition between the seasons was a bridge to the world of the dead.
